

The Sydney Morning Herald.

NO. 8079.—VOL. XLIX.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1884.

PRICE THREEPENCE.

NOTICE TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE "SYDNEY MORNING HERALD."

The price of this Journal when delivered by Agents will be as heretofore—£4 per annum. In order to share with our distant Subscribers, as far as possible, the burden of the new postage tax (£1 6s.), the price of the Journal when sent prepaid through the Post Office on and after this date, will be £4 10s. per annum.

The Subscribers to this Journal who can only be reached by post, and who wish to decline on account of the advance in price, will be good enough to give early intimation of their intention, and pay up all arrears forthwith.

OVERDUE ACCOUNTS.
Those Subscribers whose accounts are overdue are respectfully requested to pay them forthwith, to prevent trouble and expense.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

FROM 22ND APRIL TO 29TH APRIL.

THE COURT OF COMMONS was held at the Court House, on the 22nd instant, and consisted of having the usual number of members. The case of the Queen v. H. M. Keighley, the prisoner was sentenced to five years' hard labour on the roads.

On Sunday, the 17th instant, high mass was celebrated at St. Charles Church, Hyde, on occasion of the annual festival previous to the departure of the missionaries to the South Sea Islands. The number this year being nine. Additional interest in the ceremony was afforded by the choir consisting of young South Sea Islanders, who, to the number of thirty, are pursuing for that special purpose by (Clydeville), Vicar Apostolic of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Central Australia. The Islanders sang a hymn in their native language after Divine service. The correspondent of the Law Courier writes that he has seen "the King" at the head of not less than seven well mounted men.

We are glad to learn by letters from France that the Imperial Government has resolved to abandon the project of penal colonisation in New Caledonia, and that the convicts now at the Port de France are the last that will be sent.

The bushranger, Vane, lately sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment, arrived in Sydney on the 22nd instant, having been brought down from Bathurst in charge of a strong party of police under the command of Sub-Inspector G. J. Large. On his arrival, he was taken to the terminus for the purpose of seeing the unhappy young man, who has gained such an enviable notoriety in the annals of crime.

A holiday was given in the public offices of the Government, on Saturday, the 16th instant, in honour of the birthday of Shakespeare. There was a concert in honour of the great dramatist, under the auspices of the Philharmonic Society, at the Masonic Hall, and performances at the Prince of Wales Theatre, and at the Theatre Royal, of which the tercentenary of Shakespeare's nativity and the national festival of the English race was in honourable remembrance.

A meeting of the members of Tattersall's was held at the 22nd instant, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year.

On the 22nd instant, Professor Bielew—the "home teacher," with a designation difficult to write, and almost impossible to pronounce, was held in the hall of Mr. Buchanan Thomson's, Bligh-street, the subject of which was principally the principles upon which a horse should be broken-in. He was assisted by Mr. Buchanan Thomson, and Mr. J. M. O'Neill.

A tea and public meeting in commemoration of the third anniversary of the Rev. J. E. Vetch's pastoral life in the Wesleyan Church, took place on the 22nd instant, at the church. There was a good attendance. The meeting, after the tea, was opened with prayer by the Rev. B. Qualie. A report of the Rev. J. E. Vetch's life during the past year was read by Mr. R. Nett.

The annual exhibition of the Agricultural Society of New South Wales was commenced on the 22nd of the month at the Agricultural Hall, and continued on Saturday, when there was rather numerous attendance. A dinner took place at Nash's hotel in the evening, at which about seventy gentlemen were present.

The second quarterly meeting of the members of the Small Bore Rifle Club, for honorary prize shooting, took place at the Volunteer Rifle Range last Saturday afternoon. The weather was remarkably fine, but the wind from the right rendered the shooting very difficult, and materially kept down the scores. The prize for the highest aggregate score was a "leg" in the "Legh Medal," secured by Mr. Russell of No. 2, who scored 41 marks.

Some silk exhibited at Government House by Mrs. E. Lee, of Parramatta, has been declared by His Excellency to be "a perfect success, strong, of beautiful dye and colour, and equal to specimens shown in London and the Milan Exhibition."

On Friday, the 22nd, an amateur dramatic performance took place at the St. Leonard's School of Arts, to raise money for the purchase of instruments for a band and a life band for the rifle company in that locality.

The Homebrew Gold claim, in the Westwood Gold-field, appears inexhaustible. On Wednesday week, the company got 360 ounces from their workings, and later in the afternoon of the same day washed a bulky-fall of dirt, which yielded two pounds weight of gold.

A young lady named Lucy Chambers, a native of the colony, is stated to have made a very successful debut as a contralto at Florence.

A meeting was held last Tuesday week, at the Commercial Schoolroom, Pitt-street, at which nearly two hundred persons were present, when the "Tonic Salt Association" formally established, and rules were framed for the guidance of the society drawn up and agreed to.

Mr. John Wilson, from the Bush Missionary Society, Sydney, upon his return from Dubbo, preached at the Wesleyan Church, on the 22nd instant, and in the evening in the Court-house, where a numerous congregation met to receive him.

Woolly and winged in the neighbourhood of Alfury are now busy at work wine-making, and are using various plants at the clouds, fearing more wet weather.

The annual meeting of the New South Wales Rifle Association was held on Monday last, when a report of the proceedings was submitted. The report was deemed highly satisfactory. The balance-sheet showed that there was £211 17s. 11d. in hand. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, and vacancies on the committee were filled.

On Monday morning last, the 25th of April, being St. Mark's Day, the Early English Church, the suburb of Alexandria was visited by the Right Rev. Dr. Barker, the Bishop Metropolitain of Sydney, Almoner of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and a large number of the clergy of the diocese. The service was held in the morning, and the Rev. G. F.
